NOTIFICATION

Leave and Minimum Attendance Rules for Postgraduate Medical & Dental Students (MD/MS/MDS)

As approved in the meeting of Board of Management, AMRU in its meeting held on 20.06.2024 the Postgraduate Medical & Dental Students (MD/MS/MDS) shall be allowed leaves and shall also be required to maintain minimum attendance as described below for appearing in the final University Examination:

- 1) Weekly one-day off (subject to exigencies of work). In addition, they are eligible for twenty-five days Paid Casual Leaves. Thus, a student is entitled to 52 weekly offs and 25 Paid Casual Leave per year.
- 2) Female post-graduate students shall be allowed maternity leaves as per existing government rules and regulations. Male post-graduate students shall be allowed paternity leave as per existing government rules and regulations. However, period of training will be extended by the same number of days for which maternity/paternity leave have been availed.
- 3) Total days in a three-year course will be 1095 days. So the total working days will be 939 days after deducting weekly offs (52x3 years= 156 days). A student will require 80 percent attendance of working days (i.e. 751 days of 939 days) for appearing in the examination. However, period of training will be extended by the same number of days for which maternity/paternity leave and total excess casual leave have been availed in three years.

- 4) Total days in a two-years course will be 730 days. So the total working days will be 626 days after deducting weekly offs (52x2 years= 104 days). A student will require 80 percent attendance of working days (i.e. 501 days of 730 days) for appearing in the examination. However, period of training will be extended by the same number of days for which maternity/paternity leave and total excess casual leave have been availed in two years.
